

POSITIONING PULLMAN

Collaborative Ideas Workshop for America's Newest National Monument

Positioning Pullman is a collaborative ideas workshop, hosted by the National Parks Conservation Association and the American Institute of Architects-Chicago, and is intended to help guide the development of America's newest urban national monument.

From April 16th-18th, teams of volunteer urban planners, architects, landscape architects, engineers, economists and historians will convene to contribute their time and expertise in support of Pullman National Monument.

SCHEDULE OF PUBLIC EVENTS

Thursday, April 16

Greenstone Church, 11211 S. St. Lawrence Ave.

6:30pm-8:00pm: Kick off and Community Input Meeting

Hosted by National Parks Conservation Association and AIA-Chicago*

Saturday, April 18

Factory Building, North Wing, 11057 S. Cottage Grove Ave.

12:00pm-3:00pm: Open House, Presentation of Concepts and Recommendations

 Richard Wilson (Adrian Smith + Gordon Gill), Project Lead, will introduce Team Leads and Team Members.*

Supported in part by Richard H. Driehaus Foundation, Chicago Community Trust, and Alphawood Foundation